II. PLAINTIFFS' CLAIM TWO: 42 U.S.C. § 1983 — MUNICIPAL LIABILITY

130. Plaintiffs reallege paragraphs 1 through 129 of this Complaint and incorporate them herein by reference.

131. Plaintiffs assert that their constitutional rights were violated when Defendant Officers falsely arrested Plaintiffs, used excessive force to execute said arrest, and each Officer respectively failed to intervene as he witnessed his fellow Officer violate Plaintiffs' constitutional rights.

132. Additionally, municipalities may be held liable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for constitutional torts that are committed pursuant to a policy, procedure, practice, or custom of the municipality. Even if the County's and the City's practice of overlooking constitutional torts was not authorized by an officially adopted policy, the practice may be so common and well-settled that it fairly represents official policy. See Bd. of County Comm'rs of Bryan County v. Brown, 520 U.S. 397,404 (1997).

133. In the present case, the City's formal and informal actions reflect a policy, practice, custom and procedure authorizing and allowing constitutional rights violations. Consequently, the City is liable for harm caused to Plaintiffs as a result of its policies, practices customs and procedures.

134. Defendant City are liable for the constitutional torts of Defendant Officers because the City sanctioned the following customs, practices, and policies:

- (A) Using unreasonable and excessive force to carry out detentions and/or arrests;
- (B) Arbitrarily using arrests when they are not necessary or permitted by law;
- (C) Ignoring the serious need for training and supervision of its Officers regarding its policies and procedures when conducting detentions and/or arrests;
- (D) Failing to adequately supervise and/or observe its Officers;
- (E) Failing to adequately train Officers regarding the availability of alternative means other than the use of arrests, force, or excessive force without probable cause;
- (F) Failing to discharge Officers who have shown a pattern or practice of falsely arresting citizens;
- (G) Failing to exclude Officers who have shown a pattern or practice of misbehavior and using excessive force from taking part in the execution of warrants.
- (H) Failing to adequately screen Officers who have shown a pattern or practice of using excessive force before hiring said officer;
- (I) Failing to inform future employer of Officers who have shown a pattern or practice of using excessive force when future employer has inquired; and
- (J) Failing to discharge Officers who have shown a pattern or practice of using excessive force; and
- (K) Adopting a practice whereby Officers who are unfit for peace Officer duties, as shown by prior actions in the line of duty, are allowed to retain their positions.

135. At the time Defendant Officers arrested Plaintiffs, they were acting pursuant to an official City policy, practice, custom and procedure overlooking and/or authorizing police Officer's excessive use of force and unlawful arrests. See Monell v. New York County Dept. of Social Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 659 (1978).

136. Thus, Defendant City's failure to supervise and train its officers, and its willful blindness towards the constitutional violations of its employees was a direct cause of Plaintiffs' injuries.

1. Failure to Train a Single Police Officer.

137. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1 through 136 of this Complaint and incorporates them herein by reference.

138. A City may be held liable for its failure to train a single officer when the policymakers know about the pattern of unconstitutional misconduct and the Officer's acts were so egregious that the City should have had clear warning that the particular Officer posed a danger to citizens. See Pineda v. County of Houston, 124 F. Supp. 2d 1057, 1068 (S.D. Tex. 2000).

139. With respect to Defendant Officers, the need for additional or different training was necessary considering the circumstance of this incident. Defendant City knew that Defendant Officers were likely to engage in other acts of wrongful conduct, yet Defendant City continuously failed to discipline, supervise, or train Defendant Officers.

140. Defendant City's acts and omissions, when viewed objectively, involved an extreme degree of risk considering the probability and magnitude of harm to citizens. Defendant City had actual, subjective awareness of the risks involved, but nevertheless proceeded with deliberate indifference to the rights, safety, or welfare of others, including Plaintiff.

141. Thus, considering the substantial risks posed by Defendant Officers, Defendant City's failure to train them constitutes gross negligence and/or deliberate and conscious indifference to the rights, safety, and welfare of others, including Plaintiffs.

VI. DAMAGES

142. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1 through 141 of this Complaint and incorporates them herein by reference.

143. In addition to the damages mentioned in the preceding paragraphs as a direct and proximate result of the intentional and unlawful conduct of Defendants, Plaintiffs have suffered, and in reasonable probability, will continue to suffer damages.

144. In addition, Defendant Officers are liable for damages as a result of the destruction to Plaintiffs' property.

145. Defendant Officers are liable for compensatory and exemplary damages arising from their negligence and gross negligence.

VII. ATTORNEY'S FEES

146. Plaintiffs reallege paragraphs 1 through 145 of this Complaint and incorporate them herein by reference.

147. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover attorney's fees and costs as required by the Civil Rights Attorney's Fees Award Act of 1976, 49 U.S.C. § 1988. Plaintiff hereby requests that the Court and jury award his attorney's fees and expenses.

VIII. JURY DEMAND

148. Plaintiffs respectfully demand a jury trial pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 8(b). Plaintiffs further respectfully demand a bench trial for claims under the Tennessee Tort Claims Act.

IX. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiffs respectfully request that Defendants be cited to appear and answer herein, and that Plaintiffs have judgment against Defendants, jointly and/or severally, for actual damages above the jurisdictional minimum of the Court; exemplary damages; pre-judgment interest; post-judgment interest, court costs, attorney's fees and expenses, and all other relief to which Plaintiffs are justly entitled, at law or in equity.

Plaintiffs pray for relief in the amount of $3,000,000.00 each.

Respectfully submitted this the 5th day of August 2021.
